entitled to terminate this contract nor shall either party have any claim or damages against the other in respect of such non-performance or delay in performance and deliveries under the contract. The contract shall be resumed as soon as practicable after such “eventuality” has come to an end or ceased to exist.

In case of any dispute, the decision of BBJ shall be final and conclusive, provided further that if the performance in whole or part of any obligation under this contract is prevented or delayed by reason of any such eventuality for a period exceeding 60 (Sixty) days, either party may at its options, terminate the contract.

Provided also that if the contract is terminated under this clause, the Purchaser shall be at liberty to take over from the supplier at a price to be fixed by the purchaser, which shall be final, all unused, undamaged and acceptable equipments, bought out components and other stores in the course of manufacture which may be in the possession of the Supplier at the time of such termination, or such portion thereof as the Purchaser may deem fit except such equipment, as the Supplier may, with the concurrence of the Purchaser, elect to retain.

17. TERMINATION FOR DEFAULT:

The Purchaser may without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract by written notice of default sent to supplier terminate this contract in whole or in part:

- a) If the supplier fails to deliver any or all the equipments within the time period specified in the contract or any extension thereof granted by the Purchaser.
- b) If the supplier fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the contract; and
- c) If the supplier, in either of the above circumstances, does not remedy his failure within a period of 15 days (or such longer period as purchaser may inform in writing) after receipt of the default notice from the purchaser.
- d) On a notice period of 30 days.

In the event the Purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part pursuant to above para, the Purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, equipment similar to those undelivered and the supplier shall be liable to the Purchaser for any excess cost for such similar equipment. However, the supplier shall continue the performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

18. TERMINATION FOR INSOLVENCY:

The Purchaser may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier, without compensation to the supplier, if the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent as declared by the competent court provided that such termination will not prejudice or effect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

19. ADD ON / REPEAT ORDER:
